Dickson Thom DDS ND

AANP 2009 Vis Award Recipient

The goal of this teleconference series is to introduce you to the concept and philosophy of Biotherapeutic Drainage™, an intra-cellular and extra-cellular drainage process. Many practitioners are finding this to be their most effective therapeutic approach for the treatment of chronic and degenerative conditions. Dr. Thom will explain the technique of using organ-specific remedies to facilitate the discharge of toxic material. Through his extensive clinical experience and case studies, Dr. Thom will demonstrate how to implement the UNDA Numbered Compounds, nutritional support, and other modalities into individualized treatment guidelines. Different systems will be discussed with particular emphasis on the nervous, endocrine, musculo-skeletal, digestive and cardiovascular systems.

KEY LEARNING HIGHLIGHTS

- Gain a greater understanding of Biotherapeutic Drainage™ and the intra-cellular and extra cellular drainage processes.
- Benefit from Dr. Thom's extensive clinical experience and knowledge.
- Learn the action and physiological use of the UNDA Numbered Compounds.
- Learn how to integrate new biotherapeutic modalities into your treatment plans.
- Learn when to use UNDA Numbered Compounds in clinical practice and how they work.

Presented by Dickson Thom DDS ND

AANP 2009 Vis Award Recipient.

Granted to Dr. Dickson Thom for his commitment to the Healing Power of Nature as a guiding force in his work, life and community service. He is an invaluable teacher and mentor, helping to cultivate a generation of promising new naturopathic physicians.

Dickson Thom DDS ND is a licensed naturopathic physician and full time professor at the National College of Natural Medicine (NCNM) in Portland, Oregon, where he teaches clinical and physical diagnosis, gastroenterology, neurology, practical endocrinology, x-ray practicum and business entrepreneurship. He is also a clinic instructor at the NCNM Clinic, the teaching clinic for NCNM. Dr. Thom regularly lectures to fellow physicians in Canada and the U.S. on the therapeutic benefits of homeopathic drainage and published one of the first books in the English language on the topic of "UNDA Numbers: An Energetic Journey to Homeostasis and Wellness". Dr. Thom has been in private practice in the Portland Metro area since 1989. His specialized practice focuses on the management of chronic disease, including autoimmune disease, neurological conditions, endocrine disorders and cancer. His therapies focus on optimal lifestyle choices for each specific condition and include dietary, sleep, and exercise recommendations; supplementation and herbal medicine; a European form of homeopathy called Biotherapeutic Drainage™; and hydrotherapy. Health is a reflection of physical, emotional, spiritual and energetic balance. Dr. Thom is committed to helping people overcome obstacles to achieving this essential equilibrium.
