Auriculotherapy, Auricular Medicine & Bioenergetic Medicine

Learn a unique diagnostic and therapeutic system based on European Ear Acupuncture developed by Paul Nogier, M.D. Auricular Medicine provides an accurate energetic method of testing for the assessment of imbalances, the assessment of the individual's ability to respond to specific remedies and treatments, and the identification of the individual's blockages to healing.

This is a 3 course (11 day) program developed to incorporate the principles of Drainage and Homeopathy with Auricular Medicine into a comprehensive system to be utilized for both diagnosis and treatment by practitioners.
